Welcome

Welcome to NT301 Jesus and the Gospels.

This unit guide will orient you to the unit, giving details of what will be covered in the lectures and the online material, the textbook required and details of the assessments you'll be doing. Especially if you are new to tertiary study, some of the terms in this guide might seem unfamiliar and confusing. If so, don't panic! We'll walk through the necessary information in class (for contact students) and in a compulsory webinar (for online students). And if you still have questions, you can contact me and we'll sort them out. Most students find they are on a learning curve to start with and it takes a few weeks to feel at home. But you'll find the learning curve is worth the effort as we delve into the Gospels to discover more about Jesus, his life and message.

See you soon!

Unit Details

NT301/D is offered as part of the Diploma of Ministry and Bachelor of Theology/Ministry which are accredited awards of the Australian College of Theology (ACT). Malyon Theological College is an approved institution of the Australian College of Theology and is authorised for online and contact delivery of this unit.

Unit Description

This unit is a Bible survey unit which, alongside The Early New Testament Church unit (NT302), aims to give students a broad introduction to the whole of the New Testament. Hence, the focus is on the "big picture" rather than "deep" exploration of specific passages. Jesus and the Gospels will give you an understanding of the historical and cultural setting of the Gospels, the various distinctives of each Gospel, the formation of the Gospels and the life and message of Jesus portrayed within them. It will encourage reflection on the implications of the Gospels for life and ministry.

This unit (along with NT302) will give you the foundation you need for other units including exegesis of specific books, systematic theology and Christian thought units, Church history, and practical ministry units.

Credit Points

This unit is valued at 4 credit points.

Co and Pre-Requisites

Please note: Contact students will be expected to attend all lectures. The material on moodle, quizzes and forum posts are the online student's equivalent of classroom interaction. Just as class attendance is compulsory for on-campus students, forum participation is COMPULSORY for online students. Online students are also required to attend two COMPULSORY online webinars as noted on the Unit Schedule. If you are unable to attend one of the two time options given for each webinar, contact your lecturer Denise asap so other arrangements can be made for you.

Textbook

Students are required to have access to the following textbook which serves both NT301 (first semester) and NT302 (second semester):

Powell, M.A. 2018. Introducing the New Testament: A Historical, Literary, and Theological Survey. 2nd ed. Grand Rapids: Baker Academic.

Please note: In the past few years the assigned textbook was the first edition (2009) of Powell's Introducing the New Testament: A Historical, Literary, and Theological Survey. Since only minor changes have been made for the 2nd edition, you may use the first edition if you wish. You will, however, have to account for changes in the chapter numbers of each week's reading.

Unit Lecturer

Dr. Denise Powell holds a PhD in Religious Studies from the University of Queensland and a BTh (Hons) from the Australian College of Theology. She's loved biblical narrative since the first time she opened a Bible and is committed to reading it well. In recent years, Denise has been a student tutor at Malyon, a full-time student, an associate pastor and a stay-at-home mum – not all at the same time. Denise is married to Andrew and is mother to two young men, Josh and Matt. The Powell family spent 10 years living in California, where Denise established a Kid's Club at her children's public school, led Bible studies at her local Church and did some part time study at Fuller Theological Seminary. Both before and after her time in the US, she worked as an associate pastor at Arana Hills Church of Christ, spending a total of nine years in pastoral ministry there. Denise enjoys hanging out with friends and family, running with her dog in the forest and watching a good movie. Her life's goal is never to learn how to sew, a goal she is on track to achieve.

Unit Assessment

Assessment Instructions

We will talk about assessment in class (for contact students) and in the compulsory webinar (for online students), so don't panic if you don't understand the following information – it will become clear:

Students should access, read and apply the Student Assignment Guide, available from the Student Resources Moodle page. Section 8 is especially relevant for those who need help with referencing. Resources appropriate to tertiary level study must be used. Assessment task 2 will help you understand what are "appropriate resources".

All assessment items are to be submitted through the Turn-it-in hyperlinks on the Unit Moodle page. The Turn-it-in software will check your work for plagiarism. If you are concerned about the Originality Report that Turn-it-in returns, contact your lecturer.

Assignments can be submitted either as Word (preferable) or .pdf documents. When saving an assignment for submission, the following file name format is to be used:

Format: Unit Code – Requirement number – Surname, Initial

Example: NT301D1D R1 Smith J

In completing assessments, students should note that:

The College requirements for the writing and submission of assignments are to be adhered to at all times; marks will be deducted for incorrect and poor presentation. The official College title page is to be used (found on the Student Resource moodle page), and the word length is to be indicated.

The due date is non-negotiable; in exceptional circumstances students are to adhere to College protocol for requesting permission for late submission. The penalty for late submission without permission is 3% per day.

With respect to length, students are permitted to write at a length of 10% either side of the stated length; for example, a 1000-word assignment should be within a 900-1100 word length. Where an assessment submission exceeds the number of required words by more than 10%, a penalty of 10% of the total possible marks will normally apply.

Grade Criteria

Bachelor's students at the foundational undergraduate degree 300-level should note that grades are awarded on the following criteria:

Pass - Attempts to engage primary sources and is aware of their significance for the discipline. Evidences a basic understanding of the foundational features of the discipline. Shows an awareness of relevant scholarly viewpoints without necessarily engaging these in depth.

Credit - Demonstrates an engagement with primary sources. Has begun to grasp the foundational features of the discipline. Is beginning to engage with a range of scholarly viewpoints.

Distinction - Demonstrates ability in engaging primary sources, is beginning to understand their setting and historical context. Evidences a grasp of the foundational features of the discipline. Demonstrates emerging skills in the task of critically evaluating a range of scholarly viewpoints.

High Distinction - Demonstrates a pronounced ability in engaging primary sources and understands their setting and historical context. Evidences a sound grasp of the foundational features of the discipline. Shows an ability to evaluate critically a range of scholarly viewpoints with empathy.

Assessment Tasks

Task 1: Take Home Exam (1000 words)

You will be given a four-part essay question to complete in your own time over three days (Thur 7 – Sat 9 Mar). You will be expected to use what you have learnt from your textbook readings and the lecture material to answer the question. Except for direct quotes (which you may use, but are not required to use), no referencing is necessary. You will be asked to sign a declaration that you have completed the exam without help from others.

Length: 1000 words

References: Students must demonstrate evidence of engagement with the lecture material and textbook. No other research sources are necessary.

Due: Sat 9 March by no later than 11:55pm on Moodle

Mark allocation: 25%

Time allocation: 25% of 65 hours = 16 hours

Learning Outcomes addressed: B.1; C.1; C2.

Task 2: Annotated Bibliography (1000 words)

Part 1 (300 words)

Imagine you were writing an academic essay on the distinctives of the Gospel of Matthew. The following resources are available online (some are from Malyon library/EBSCO) Find them and give them a star rating from 1-5 to reflect their credibility/reliability. Give reasons why you didn't rate them with a higher star rating and reasons why you didn't rate them with a lower star rating. (Obviously, if you gave them a 1 or a 5 star rating you cannot give both reasons.)

1. <https://www.biblicaltraining.org/library/distinctive-theologies-mark-matthew/biblical-theology/van-pelt-blomberg-schreiner>
2. <https://www.sparknotes.com/lit/newtestament/section1/>
3. Talbert, Charles H. 2010. Matthew. Paideia Commentaries on the New Testament. Grand Rapids: Baker Academic.
4. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gospel_of_Matthew
5. Kim, Hak Chol. 2012. "The Worship of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew." Biblica 93 (2): 227–41

Part 2 (700 words)

You will soon be writing an essay on the distinctives of the Gospel of Luke. (See Task 3) Find five resources that you could use for your essay that you would rate as 5 star resources. Create an annotated bibliography using the Chicago author-date referencing style. For each entry, give some detail about the resource and its relevance to your essay topic.

For example:

Green, Joel B. 1997. The Gospel of Luke. NICNT. Grand Rapids: Eerdmans.

At the time of publication, Joel Green was professor of New Testament interpretation at Ashbury Theological Seminary. His commentary is one of the highly regarded New International Commentary on the New Testament series, edited by Gordon D. Fee and endorsed by several other New Testament scholars. Green informs his readers about the historical and cultural background of the Gospel of Luke but also approaches it as a narrative that gives insight into Luke's theology. Relevant to my essay are pages 21-25 where Green gives an overview of Luke's purpose and theology. He notes several key themes of the narrative and gives examples of specific passages that shed light on Luke's distinctive aims in writing his Gospel. Green's commentary is somewhat dated, being written 21 years ago.

The key assessment criteria for this requirement are how well you demonstrate:

1. The ability to distinguish between a more credible and a less credible resource (Part 1) (30%)
2. The ability to find credible academic resources relevant to the field of Gospel studies (Part 2) (25%).
3. The ability to evaluate the credibility and usefulness of such resources (25%)
4. The skill of correct referencing (Part 2) (20%)

Length: 1000 words

Due: Sat 30 Mar by no later than 11:55pm on Moodle

Mark allocation: 25%

Time allocation: 25% of 65 hours = 16 hours

Learning Outcome addressed: A.1, A.2, B.2, B3.

Task 3: Research Essay (1500 words)

Describe and discuss the distinctive features of the Gospel of Luke in comparison to the other synoptic gospels. This may include a discussion of key themes, Luke's portrayal of Jesus, the structure of the Gospel, and passages that are distinctive to Luke's Gospel. You may use (but are not limited to) the resources you found for your annotated bibliography (Task 2, part 2).

The key assessment criteria for this requirement are how well you demonstrate:

1. Engagement and citation of credible academic resources. (10%)
2. A knowledge of the distinctive features of the Gospel of Luke. (30%)
3. The ability to support your claims with passages from Luke and thoughts from scholars (30%)
4. The ability to synthesise diverse ideas into a coherent argument. (15%)
5. The ability to express yourself concisely and clearly with attention to correct grammar, punctuation and spelling. (15%).

Length: 1500 words
References: at least 6
Due: Sat 20 Apr by no later than 11:55pm on Moodle
Mark allocation: 35%
Time allocation: 35% of 65 hours = 23 hours
Learning Outcome addressed: A.1, A.2, B.2; B.3.

Task 4: Multiple choice final exam (30 mins)

This final exam will consist of 30 multiple choice questions and will test your knowledge of the entire unit content.

Due: Wed 5 June 19 (Exam week)
Mark allocation: 15%
Time allocation: 15% of 65 hours = 10 hours
Learning Outcome addressed: A.1, A.2, B.1; B.2; B.3.
