UNIT OUTLINE

NT017-6/7/812, The Fourth Gospel (Greek)

Description	“What has been written down in this book [the Fourth Gospel] has been written down to this end: that you (hearers and readers) will be believers that Jesus (really) is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you can have the Life that is as present as the simple invocation of his Name” (John 20:31; Frederick Dale Bruner’s rendering). The Fourth Gospel (Greek) offers the opportunity of first-hand, original language engagement with this captivating Gospel which promises to foster and create belief and trust in Jesus as Messiah and to experience the life that he came to offer.
